

ABOUT THE NPAC

The National Pre-Alumni Council (NPAC) serves as the umbrella organization and governing body for each Pre-Alumni Council (PAC) on UNCF member college campuses. The NPAC, the student component of the National Alumni Council, was founded in 1958 by Dr. Walter Washington, an alumnus of Tougaloo College. He felt that it was imperative for students to understand and learn early their responsibilities as alumni of historically black colleges and universities. The NPAC provides leadership for PAC students who are elected to serve on the NPAC Board. The PAC encourages student participation in alumni activities prior to and after graduation. Also, the PACs raise monies for UNCF. The purposes of the PACs shall be to stimulate the interest and participation of the students enrolled at UNCF-member institutions in order to preserve and to create further loyalty and fellowship between the colleges and universities, their faculty, staff, students and alumni. All students enrolled at any UNCF member college or university are encouraged to be a member of their respective PAC.

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

If you want to connect with more than 500 students, faculty, leaders in the HBCU community, funding experts, sponsors, alumni and member institutions of the country's largest and most effective African American education organization—UNCF, this is your chance. The 2015 UNCF Leadership Conference is the perfect opportunity to get acquainted with key decision makers and engage students who are on the path to leadership. Your involvement in this conference is an opportunity to demonstrate a commitment to education now and in the future. Conference participants and attendees will consist of more than 500 UNCF college presidents, alumni affairs directors, national alumni association presidents, UNCF alumni, UNCF students, alumni from historically black colleges and other supporters of UNCF.

ABOUT THE NAC

Founded in 1946 by Fisk University alumnus James E. Stamps the mission of the National Alumni Council (NAC) of the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) is to support, promote, influence and strengthen Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). The foundation of NAC's mission is a commitment to work with UNCF to ensure its network of member institutions are a respected model of best practices in moving students to and through college. The NAC serves as the umbrella organization for Inter-Alumni-Councils, the National Pre-Alumni Council and National Alumni Associations. Other organizations also subscribe to UNCF's mission as at-large members.

In support of UNCF and its mission the NAC will:

- Increase individual contributors and contributions from alumni to their alma maters.
- Increase individual contributions to UNCF.
- Maintain a strong communications network between alumni of UNCF member schools.
- Disseminate information of vital importance to the life and well-being of HBCUs.
- Provide volunteer assistance to local UNCF campaigns through Inter-Alumni Councils and Pre-Alumni Councils.
- Inform the general public, prospective students, and funding sources of the value of HBCU alumni to civic improvement and community progress.
- Encourage recent graduates to become active members of their respective alumni associations.
- Develop and pursue other goals relevant to strengthening and expanding the contributions of HBCUs and HBCU alumni.

ABOUT UNCF

UNCF's mission is to build a robust and nationally recognized pipeline of under-represented students who, because of UNCF support, become highly qualified college graduates and to ensure that our network of 37 member HBCUs is a respected model of best practice in moving students to and through college. UNCF administers more than 400 programs, including scholarship, internship and fellowship, mentoring, summer enrichment and curriculum and faculty development programs. UNCF envisions a nation where all Americans have equal access to a college education that prepares them for rich intellectual lives, competitive and fulfilling careers, engaged citizenship and service to our nation. Today, UNCF supports more than 60,000 students at over 900 colleges and universities across the country. For more information, go to UNCF.org.
